Junior Provincials

Congratulations to Alanna Routledge and her team for their strong showing at the recent Junior Provincial Championships at Etchemin. Way to go!

Little Rocks bonspiel

Two Glenmore teams participated in the 19th annual New Years Little Rock Bonspiel in Carleton Place, Ontario on January 7, 2006. Sixteen teams of curlers aged twelve and under were entered in the event. The team from Glenmore skipped by Lewis South won all three of their games and ended up winning the spiel. The team consisted of Lewis South (skip), Jasmine Watson (3rd), Geoffrey Thiboutot (2nd) and Zachary Gillim (lead). The winners were awarded medals and all participants received a "Let's Rock" sweatshirt. The other Glenmore team won two of their three games and ended up tied for second place. This team consisted of Ian South (skip), Alysha Parsons (3rd), Michelle Plesko (2nd) and Sarah Thiboutot (lead). A fun time was had by all and Lewis' team members hope to defend their title next year.

In February, two Glenmore little rock teams will be heading to Brockville and in March, two teams will be at the Granite Curling Club in Ottawa. The kids are looking forward to these out of town events.

Men's regional playdowns

Congratulations to Tom Wharry and his team (Mark McClory, Yves Lanthier, Mike Whittingham) for being the runner-up in the 'C' division of the men's regional playdowns in Boucherville. Kudos also to all eight Glenmore teams who participated in the event.

Glenmore New Year's Eve Party Recap

The annual New Year's Eve party was a huge success this year with a sell out of 80 people partying it up! This was up from 55 people last year, so word is spreading that this is a fun party. Our DJ had people dancing until the wee hours of the morning. Thanks once again to our caterer Andrew Bannister, who served up delicious creations of chicken, veal, and eggplant lasagna. Thanks also to Dawn Sheppard, Angie Kyle and Bill Sheppard for their hard work with the decorations and transforming the main lounge into party central.

Happy New Year to All!
